English surgeon, to be near the spot, should his valuable professional services be required. Having said I, a full hour to spare before the terrible meeting, suppose we take a tiffen and bottle of cool claret; for I thought it not unlikely we should require it before we reached that tremendous height--the Old Fort, --in mid-day, under the influence of a broiling hot sun, as well as to cool the choler of Master Humphries, which I foresaw would be not a little ruffled when he discovered the trick I had played upon him. While partaking our repast, Captain Mackintosh was announced, to whom the challenge was shown. O it is some mistake, he observed; it must be, depend upon it. Mistake! reiterated Humphries; a queer sort of a mistake, I guess--why there is his Commandants letter--mistake, and be d d to him! Mackintosh expressed his...
