

The Headhunter's Daughter: A Mystery

By Myers, Tamar.

William Morrow. 1 Paperback(s), 2011. soft. Book Condition: New. Reports of a white girl living among the Bashilele tribe of headhunters in 1950s Belgian Congo shock young American missionary Amanda Brown and her police captain suitor, Pierre Jardin, in this second mystery in Tamar Myers's series. Could the young woman known to the tribe as "Ugly Eyes" be the same Belgian who vanished from the community as an infant 13 years earlier? With the conniving maid, Cripple, as translator, Amanda and Pierre set out to find the girl, and return her to civilization. Ugly Eyes might not even belong to their world anymore, and the secrets surrounding her birth may place all of them in danger. Tamar Myers, the author of the Den of Antiquity cozies, grew up along the Congo, and immerses the reader in its distinctive atmosphere. 229.
