Caitlins Country follows the adventures of a fifteen-year-old American girl from Texas who moves half-way across the world to live with her father in modern day Australia. Her father, an antique dealer, lives in a very old cottage which was part of a farm in Australias early convict days. One afternoon while she is wearing a colonial costume for History Day at school, Caitlin is unexpectedly befriended by a young artist named Ainsley Allen. Ainsley has never heard of Texas or seen a digital wrist-watch! As she struggles to understand her strange friend and where he comes from, Caitlin also deals with the problems of school, making new friends - and getting to know her father again.
