Below are given extracts from letters received by the State Department showing how the teachers have secured needed equipment. Superintendent Doolittle wrote under date of February 18, 1916: I wish to report that during this school term twenty-two Victrolas or Grafanolas have been bou ht by the school districts of Logan County, and playground equipment has een installed in thirty-eight of our schools. Prof. Geo. Ingels of Guymon desired to secure playground equipment for his school. The following extract from his letter explains how he secured it: The school board was persuaded to get the material for a see-saw and four swings, two for the boys and two for the girls. Patrons loaned me the tools. I did the framing, and the boys helped dig the hole, raise the frames, tamp them in, and anchor them down. The following is...
