TEENAGE IDOL

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The second release from suburbia s teen-spirited reject aims to tackle our fantasies and hometown heroes before they hit the 20-yard-line. Like his debut, Merridew manages to fuel much of Teenage Idol with a similar darkness that is only amplified with bitter endings and tear-jerking plot lines. Leading story, The Deep End, paints themes of fame-lust and indulgence, while stories like On City Limits and Lax Hoes, Sports Bros offer a triumphant glimmer of hope in a whirlwind of big dreams and unrealistic expectations. Bruce Farrel returns in Solo Cups Bruises and Trophy Boy to finish what he started in his three-part story weaved between personal narratives that seem straight from a diary. Bleach, Blood Cum holds nothing back with a sexually-driven storyline about a boy who wants the fame that you need an ID to see. But despite what is resting on the surface, Teenage Idol isn t about striving for egotistical fame or plastic perfection. It s about our generation s insecurities. It s about ripping apart poster boys and hanging a mirror above the bed frame instead. It s about dancing solo and partying hard, even when your invitation gets lost in the mail. It s about dreaming big in a dead town and rising above the low-blows from anyone who has ever told you that you can t win.
