

The Making of The Millenium (Paperback)

By Patricia G. Eddy

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Making of the Millennium tells the story of one of the most powerful myths that has ever motivated Western peoples. This is the ancient story in the Bible that describes a horrific end of the world followed for a few survivors by a new golden age called the Millennium. This book describes how the Bible s myth has managed to keep its luster for over three thousand years while other myths have faded away. It also describes how the refurbishment techniques that are found in the new interpretations have kept the Bible s end-time myth alive and active in people s imaginations. The book analyses how the frequent and creative interpretations of the Bible s myth have fueled ancient and modern suicidal cults, as well as ancient and modern militias.This book highlights how the Bible contains several versions of the deity s comments on the world s end and traces the end-time myths through Egypt, the ancient Middle East, and to Persia where fast paced myth making created several exciting renditions before they found their way into the Scriptures. This book explains...
