Excerpt from Quaker Quiddities; Or Friends in Council: A Colloquy What is contained in the following pages has nothing to do with prize-essayism. After it was written, I was surprised to learn that the hundred-guinea offer had produced a baker's dozen of books, each one of which was considered by the writer conclusive as an answer to the question, Why is Quakerism declining? As near as I can find out by a cursory examination of these essays to do the hundred-guinea job successfully, Quakerism is declining because it is Quakerism, and not Episcopalianism, Methodism, or Mormonism. Most lame and impotent conclusion one is prompted to exclaim, in view of the result of this speculative operation in the article of Quakerism. There is a decrease of the number of names on the rolls of the monthly meetings; and why? Why? Because Quakerism is not Mormonism if it were, the number would increase.
