As a teenager, James Ellis, an American Indian, rejected his grandfather s teachings, his heritage and his culture. It was a bitter parting that cut deeply. Now a Colonel in the United States Air Force, Ellis, for political reasons, is assigned a mission to fly over a nuclear bomb test site, a cavern in Nevada. Petroglyphs at the cave entrance warn all visitors and intruders that it is dangerous to disturb the cave or the ground around it. Ellis knows it is a sacred site and he knows his assignment is bogus, designed to eliminate protest. Seeking guidance, he returns to his Grandfather s teachings; alone in the wilderness, he builds a ceremonial fire and speaks to Grandfather. He is visited by a Spirit Guide. Unable to believe the Guide is real, Ellis proceeds unguided, follows orders and flies to the bomb site. The Earth is bleeding. An image of a woman, ten times the size of a human, dressed in traditional American Indian style, lying in a pool of blood, reaches out a blood stained hand and begs forgiveness. Ellis thinks he is hallucinating. Ellis stands at Fate s Crossover. To save Mother Earth, he must journey into the mystical world of his Grandfather, Dancing Bear.
