Excerpt: . . . full appreciation of the privileges and benefits which they have inherited and which they today enjoy, and are remiss in the exercise of the duties and obligations which society in general rightfully expects from them. Neither is the problem likely to be solved nor the desired goals reached if attention is directed solely, or chiefly, to the adult members of our body politic. To nationalize individuals takes time. Education must be begun in the early days of life. Just as the twig is bent the trees inclined. Or, to combine the wisdom of Solomon with that of Pope: Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. It is the child and the youth who most of all need to be Americanized. If the on-coming generation of boys and girls can be...
