Word Alive Press, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. New.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This collection of poems depicts the author's beliefs, love of nature, and daily struggles. They speak of God's love and our need for a Saviour, his passion, and his mercy for us. Whatever our struggles, there is someone we can always rely on and trust in, and this is the inspiration for these writings. The poems were written to encourage, to ponder his sacrifice, to question, to express feelings of loneliness and unworthiness, and to find that place of belonging. About the Author: Kimberly Haberstock has always enjoyed writing and, after being inspired at a Christian concert in her second year of university, she began to write poetry. Her faith continues to inspire her in her writing, along with her love of nature. Besides poetry, she has found other ways to express herself, including painting and playing the guitar.
