By Augustus Baldwin Longstreet

Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Voice From the South: Comprising Letters From Georgia to Massachusetts, and to the Southern States, With an Appendix Containing an Article From the Charleston Mercury on the Wilmot Proviso In order to a proper appreciation of these letters, the reader must remember that the Author speaks throughout, in the character of a Sovereign State, which had long been abused by the Abolitionists, and which had received some personal aggressions from Massachusetts, in regard to her Slave property and other things; as indeed had Virginia, South Carolina, and Louisiana. Massachusetts may well be considered the mother of Abolitionism; indeed her State Abolition Society lays claim to this honor for her; and no one will dispute it with her. She has been the most restless agitator upon this subject by far, of any State in the Union. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
