Later he attended the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at Hanover (now the University of New Hampshire at Durham), from which he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in 1893. If later performance is any criterion, he must have been a good student. The year following graduation was spent at Cornell University studying under L. H. Bailey. Apparently at that time Dr. Britton's main interests lay in the field of horticulture. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find...
