Excerpt from The Yosemite, Alaska, and the Yellowstone I would say to all those who have never made this journey but are intending to do so, that they can not do better than take this little book along with them to serve them as a guide; while those, less fortunate, may gain, with a little effort, some good idea of what nature has done throughout that vast stretch of country, and also what the energy of man has been able to accomplish there during the last fifty years. For the possible benefit of both, I may complete this preface with a few dry facts and statistics which would have been out of place in the pages of my friends About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
