

Ripples from the Zambezi: Passion, Entrepreneurship, and the Rebirth of Local Economies (Paperback)

By Ernesto Sirolli

New Society Publishers, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Not your average (boring!) book on economic development, this is an inspired account of a revolutionary approach to revitalizing urban and rural economies, one person at a time. Through Enterprise Facilitation, depressed communities can build lasting hope and prosperity by first helping individuals recognize their talents and their business passion, and then provide the skills necessary to transform their dreams into meaningful and rewarding work.
