La Muerte de Beowulf y Otros Cuentos Vikingos (Paperback)

By Manuel Velasco

Tombooktu, Spain, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. Seven Viking tales inspired by classic epic tales, from the great heroes of ancient times like Beowulf and Ragnar Lodbrok, to the story of the biggest war boat or the authentic Hamlet s revenge. There were Vikings who lived adventure-filled lives and, as such, were considered heroes by their contemporaries and those that followed. Eventually their lives were included in the epic tales that would serve as models for the younger generations by offering and reiterating the basic Viking values the so-called nine noble virtues of self-discipline, autonomy, courage, honor, hospitality, hard work, loyalty, perseverance, and sincerity. Through the well-written and fascinating pages of this book written by Viking expert Manuel Velasco, readers will take an imaginary journey into the past to witness the last hours of Beowulf after his battle against the dragon, the scheming of Amled, who acted like an idiot to survive while simultaneously planning a cruel revenge plot, or the numerous problems that Norwegians experienced when King Harald ruled his land with a cruel and harsh hand.Those readers already well versed in Viking legends will discover a more enjoyable presentation of these stories. The...
