

The Making of Bhishma (Paperback)

By Kamesh Ramakrishna

Kashi Software Architects, Inc., 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Abridged Version of the Last K ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An excerpt: I am Amba. The voice rang in Devavrata s ear like a forgotten melody . Images stuck in lost time veered in and out of focus. Questions came flooding in. How could it be Amba? What was she doing, here and now? The questions stuck in his throat, refusing expression. Then the voice in his ear shattered and a grey miasma crawled out of it, a grey that he associated with pain and anger. The glow faded, and the grey fog grew until it shadowed every color. Amba. She is here. I must see her. He tried to turn. The stub of an arrow, under the pit of his left arm, made him pause at every movement, however slight. Synopsis Devavrata Bhishma is dying, wounded. He tells Yudhishtira how the Kauravas established the frontier trading town of Hastinapura. When the river Sarasvati dried up, migrants from the doomed Panchnad cities poured into Hastinapura seeking safety and support. But they also fought with the forest-dwelling Nagas. Hastinapura under Devavrata addresses the crisis, but at...
