One day they left the house and met wise old Grandpa Hamster, who took care of them and taught them everything he knew. Old Hamster also introduced mice to his friend Aunt Rat and they spent a cozy evening together. Small mice were asking many questions, Why is the grass green? Why don t flowers fly like butterflies? From where does the wind blow? At the end of their journey small mice realized, that there is always a choice: stay behind the warm fireplace or discover a huge interesting world and meet new friends! As all the books from Grandpa Antonio, the story is illustrated with beautiful author pictures. About the Author When Grandpa Antonio was a little boy he was a big dreamer, spending evenings with his friends telling them exciting stories. Now he is a grandfather. His only grandson lives far away and Grandpa Antonio writes and illustrates books for him and other kids. All of the books tell beautiful, authentic stories about friendship, adventures and dreams.
