James hadn t realised how lucky he was until the birth of his son. When facing the horrors from Jensen Lyons, James believed that he may not just make it. But if it hadn t been for love and support from his fiance Fiona and his close family and best friend Jack he may not have. Now just as his life was settling back down, James receives a question that would send a chill down any parent s spine. Are you the father? This question leads James on yet another heart breaking journey. Which will make him question everything and everyone around him. Not knowing if he will ever see his own son again .He must leave all that he trusts to go find a long lost sister. The Day Was Thursday is the second of his memoirs. Who will you trust?.
