CHAPTER XXVI EXPLAINING THE DAY Prince Bulow emptied a small phial of doubledistilled extract of eau de Cologne on his handkerchief, for a message from the palace said that the War Lords ear trouble had again become acute, and that, consequently, all windows and doors must be hermetically shut during his visit at the Chancellery. Again he was called up. Wilhelm had dismissed his Chasseur, with a record of twenty years faithful service, because the man kept the carriage door open while he asked whether a hotwater bag was wanted. Instantly! Wouldnt suffer him to take his place on the box again. Pleasant evening in store for us, Herr von Bohlen, said the Prince to Berthas fiance. He rang for his adjutant. You would not like to go back to Brandenburg he began pleasantly. Nor to any other provincial hole, Your Highness, answered the Baron...
