Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 178 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .God is everywhere where we allow him to be. His accepted presence within what we feel, what we think, and what we do is what brings energy and life to that of which is good within and around us. It is within that feeling that embodiment of this belief that the poetry within this book was created. They embrace the presence of God as the source of everything good. At the Fork in the Road I am on a road most traveled Where in a moment the journey quickly becomes so unraveled Where steps forward leave so little to gain From the bumps and potholes of suffering and pain All leaving me feeling so lost and alone So very much on my own From every hopeful view of the end Turning out to be just another horrible bend Then, at the edge of my very last tear Caught between me and the inflicted fear As the road ahead began to grow dim I started to give up hope until I came to the fork in the road that led me to Him.
