

Drifters Without Borders (Paperback)

By Wayven Pienaar

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Can I explain why I started drifting? From the moment she disembarks in a tiny Hungarian metropolis to her final disembarkation in Turkey, her existence is marked by uproar, hysterics and danger. What Drew hoped to be a professional venture, a career move turns into utter bedlam. And her eccentric fellow drifters aren't making the trip any easier. Amid the chaos, she finds love with a mouthy, blue-eyed Scotsman, who always seems to be between jobs. The Scotsman unfailingly adds to their already mayhem-laden path, which includes finding their dead house mate and running from the Chinese authorities. After six weeks of couples therapy, they realize that their romance had run its course. A bitter pill for both to swallow. As she stares out at the clear blue waters on the beach in the south of Turkey at sundown, Drew is forced to rethink her life. Does she return home to her life of normalcy or stay in the mess and feel alive?.
