

The Doll Making Delta (Paperback)

By Gretchen S B

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Renee Edward has a lot on her plate. She took over as President of the Renee-Gal company from her father a few months ago. Just in time for a merger with a new parent company. As if that timing was not bad enough she finds out several Junior Executives have been ruining the merger from within. Just as she is scrambling to pick up the pieces, Ruben Blackthorne strolls into her life. He is sexy, tall and clearly into her. Though she is excited about this new development in her love life Renee finds it a little hard to juggle the new addition. As everything in her life finally seems to fall into place for the first time in almost a year Renee finds herself confused as Ruben begins to pull away. Had she imagined their connection? Were things moving too fast? Lost and confused, at least she has her family and her fellow Deltas to get her through. That is until everything takes another unexpected turn.
