Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 40 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from Why Go to College: An Address To a largely increasing number of young girls college doors are opening every year. Every year adds to the number of men who feel as a friend of mine, a successful lawyer in a great city, felt when in talking of the future of his four little children he said, For the two boys it is not so serious, but I lie down at night afraid to die and leave my daughters only a bank account. Year by year, too, the experiences of life are teaching mothers that happiness does not necessarily come to their daughters when accounts are large and banks are sound, but that on the contrary they take grave risks when they trust everything to accumulated wealth and the chance of a happy marriage. Our American girls themselves are becoming aware that they need the stimulus, the discipline, the knowledge, the interests of the college in addition to the school, if they are to prepare themselves for the most serviceable lives. But there are still parents who say, There is no need that my daughter should teach; then why should she go to college About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
