Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Helga Zepp-LaRouche: William White, the former chief economist of the Bank for International Settlements, who is now in a leading position in the OECD, gave a very interesting interview to Ambrose Evans- Pritchard from the British Daily Telegraph, warning that the next financial crash is inevitable. Now, I think this is absolutely true. We have said it many times, but it s good to hear it from at least one prominent economist. He blames quantitative easing for that coming crash, saying that this policy of pumping out money has created a Catch-22 situation, since the central banks really cannot continue forever with the zero interest rate policy and quantitative easing. There are already very clear global inflationary pressures. That just makes the bubble bigger. The longer you wait, the worse it becomes, until it finally explodes. On the other hand, if they want to end that, which they do-then even the slightest increase in the interest rate could trigger a crash. And White pointed to the fact that there are many fracture points in the global financial system. He said in effect that the crash is inevitable. Now that is obviously a subject which is so grave that it deserves full attention at the Davos World Economic Forum, because somewhere around 2,500 to 3,000 top bankers, government officials, and corporate CEOs, are there. You would think that they would have to come up with solutions. But the speeches made so far-including German Chancellor Merkel, Indian Prime Minister Modi, and French President Macron-all said various things, but nothing to address this fundamental question. The one exception was the Chinese representative Liu He, a key advisor to President Xi Jinping and a new member...
