If the executive branch of government is permitted to refuse to enforce the laws our Government becomes a farce. Sugar prices in Canada fluctuate from 22 to 24 cents a pound while in this country they vary from 27 to 32 cents a pound. The prices charged by grocers in Canada have been closely watched by government officials. There is no sugar shortage in Canada. --Bayard (Iowa) Bulletin, 8. 520. Yet Canada is many hundreds of miles further removed from the source of supply than is the U. S. The sugar price situation is only another incident for which we may be grateful to the Democratic Administration. Senator Harding's grave warning. Whenever we quote from Senator Harding's speeches we regret that our limited space does not permit us to quote them in full. In his speech on September 15th to a visiting delegation of Californians headed by Governor W. D. Stephens Senator Harding sounded a grave warning to both the consumers and the producers of this country, especially with reference to our agricultural industry, he said in part: Because the safety and prosperity of the farmers of this country are our own safety and prosperity and permanence, no man, woman or child in the United States can fail to have an interest in protecting our basic industry--that of agriculture--where ever Protection is necessary by the proper use of Tariff regulation. The time has come when we are ceasing to be a food exporting nation,...
