

Hunting Court (Paperback)

By Michael Greco

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A new one on Hunting Court. An old man moved into a house on Hunting Court in the 1950 s. He was a busy man who worked for a local newspaper. After he retired he became lazy and less social. He didn t take care of the house. He wouldn t shovel the snow off the porches in the winter or mow the lawn in the summers. A policeman actually had to go to his house and tell him to mow his lawn. Matthew Morgan is a young man right out of college who wants to pursue a career in business management but he has a terrible time finding a job. After seeing an ad for a real estate agent who has management experience he applies for the job and gets it. He has worked for the real estate company called Montgomery Real Estate for about a year and a half when he is assigned to work on a house on Hunting Court. The owner of Montgomery Real Estate calls Matthew early one morning in November and informs him a new one...
