Excerpt from The Normal Herald, Vol. 6: November, 1900 Please come to me at the above address instead of to Greeley, Col. As formerly. I resigned there last June to accept the supervision of manual training here, including the introduction of the work. We have Opened seven centres or laboratories. I have five assistants, and nearly seventh and eighth grade boys are now receiving instruction in Sloyd. The girls have Domestic Economy. The impossibility of being present at the reunion and anniversary celebration was a matter of great regret to me. But I enjoyed your account of the occasion very much indeed. When the Pacific Coast Alumni Association has its reunion you must send a delegate, several of them if you can. Sincerely yours.
