To dead men life he is, to sick men health; To blind men sight, and to the needy wealth--A pleasure without loss, a treasure without stealth. GILES FLETCHER. The chariot! the chariot! its wheels roll in fire, As the Lord cometh down in the pomp of his ire; Self-moving, it drives on its pathway of cloud, And the heavens with the hurden of Godhead are bow d. The glory! the glory! around him are pour d The myriads of angels that wait on the Lord; And the glorified saints and the martyrs are there, And all who the palm leaves of victory wear. The trumpet! the trumpet! the dead have all heard: Lo, the depths of the stone-cover d monuments stirr d! From ocean and earth, from the south pole and north, Lo, the vast generation of ages come forth....
