Avoid securities fees charges taking up to 63 of your money. Accumulate $55,000, $250,000, even $1,000,000. Don t let a financial emergency kill your financial dreams. Many financial plans have been destroyed by an unexpected, huge, catastrophic event that catches you without money. If your spouse is in an accident or your home burned or you die, how will your family move on from the devastation? Most emergencies can be handled by a combination of cash and insurance. Because some events can have catastrophic impact on your life, you need insurance. However, having the wrong kind of insurance can destroy your life. And certain situations demand cash since there is no or very expensive insurance available. Insurance shifts the financial burden from you in exchange for regular premiums. Wealthy people have a large policy but it doesn t cost them big bucks. They carry the right kind of coverage-a form of self-insurance -so they pay low premiums...
