Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jax Donovan left his tiny hometown of Ashland Falls - and high school sweetheart Georgi Petersen - for the bright lights of the Big Apple. He found success on Broadway beyond his wildest dreams, but those dreams were empty without Georgi. Now he s back to help his old director and mentor save the local theater - and to win his back his leading lady. It s been years since she s seen Jax, but Georgi s still smarting from the way he dumped her at the first flicker of fame and fortune. It took what seemed like forever for her to get over him, and she s not about to give him the chance to break her heart again. Besides, nothing s changed since he left. He still thrives on the fast pace of the big city, and she s content living in sleepy Ashland Falls, working as the local librarian and acting in the community theater. When an on-stage kiss reignites their passion, Georgi can no longer deny that she still has feelings for Jax. But when Broadway comes calling again, will history repeat itself, or can the city boy and the small town girl find their way to happily ever after . . .
