FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 76: February 5, 1914 The Apostle Paul says, Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen (heb. 11: 1) And Joseph the Prophet adds: From this we learn that faith is the assurance which men have of things which they have not seen. In order to have faith in God, we must have a belief, or assurance, that He does exist. The Apostle Paul says (heb. 11: 6) Without faith it is impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him. Man by his own seeking cannot come to God; but he must believe that God exists, then, through the exercise of faith, he may hope to obtain a knowledge of God. In order to believe that God is a rewarder of all those who seek Him, man must trust God, or have confidence in His words and promises. Many may ask how the idea that there is a God, who is all powerful and is able to reward man for his labors, was first conceived by man. For the diligent seeker after truth, a careful study of the scriptures will give convincing evidence of how the existence of God was first made known to man. In Genesis, chapter 2, it is written that God made man in His own image, and called him Adam - that God talked with Adam and gave him commandments. Adam knew the face of God, heard His voice and talked with Him. Therefore Adam knew that God existed. Again, it is recorded...
