Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Woman s Association for the Betterment of Public School Houses in North Carolina Recognizing improvement of public school houses and grounds as one of the first steps in the direction of improving the public schools and inspiring the confidence and pride of the people in these schools, I have, during my administration, beginning February, 1902, endeavored to foster and use every possible means for the accomplishment of this desirable end. A ceaseless campaign has been carried on by county superintendents and other school officers, by campaign speakers and other patriotic citizens, by the press of the state and by bulletins issued from time to time from my office for better public school houses and equipment and for beautifying the school-rooms and improving the School grounds. In 1903 a pamphlet containing plans, cuts, bills of material and Specifications for improved school houses, prepared by competent architects in accordance with well established principles of modern school architecture, was prepared, printed and distributed from the office of the superintendent of public instruction. The school law was amended so as to require all new school-houses to be constructed in accordance with the plans contained in this pamphlet or with some plan approved by the state superintendent Of public instruction and the county board of education. In 1903 the loan fund was established by act of the general assembly creating a permanent loan fund, amounting now to and increasing each year by four per cent. Interest on the entire amount loaned and by the proceeds of the sale of swamp lands belonging to the state board of education. One-tenth of this fund, together with the annual interest on the entire fund,...
