

The First Session with Children and Adolescents: Conducting a Comprehensive Mental Health Evaluation

By Alvin E. House PhD

The Guilford Press. Hardcover. Condition: New. 292 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.8in. x 1.2in. This book provides a thorough, practical primer on carrying out an initial mental health evaluation with a child or adolescent client. The emphasis is on efficiently eliciting the information needed for formulating the young persons difficulties, clarifying the diagnostic situation, and planning for treatment or referral, within the context of a caring, respectful professional relationship. Beginning with the first contact with a new client, the reader is taken step-by-step through the collection and integration of observational, interview, background, and collateral information. Important issues covered include structuring the evaluation session, effective record keeping, confidentiality concerns, and providing feedback to parents. Reflecting the authors 25 years of professional experience, the book is filled with interview segments that bring the practical business of child assessment to life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.

READ ONLINE
[6.41 MB]

Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and exciting. I could comprehend almost everything using this composed e publication. I am easily could possibly get a delight of looking at a composed pdf.

-- Lynn Lindgren

This publication is definitely not effortless to get started on studying but extremely enjoyable to see. I was able to comprehend almost everything using this created e pdf. I am pleased to let you know that here is the finest publication i have go through in my very own lifestyle and could be he very best pdf for ever.

-- Prof. Juliana Langosh DVM