

Stray (Paperback)

By Amanda Dalton

BLOODAXE BOOKS LTD, United Kingdom, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Stray is a book about strays - human and animal - and about straying. It s about the lost and being lost, searching for home, and it s about the extraordinary places we sometimes discover when we re off the beaten track, deliberately or accidentally off-course. It s sometimes a noun and it s sometimes a verb - almost a command. As Allan s mind strays and roams, he recasts himself as astronaut Buzz Aldrin. He may be lost in space, but he has an amazing time up there! A feral child becomes a dog to find her way back home. Medea fetches up in Sheffield, semi-wild, living in a van with a goat on a rope. She s washing dishes in a Sheffield pub when in walks footballer Jason - Cesare the somnambulist has lost himself in sleep. It s only when he falls from the path and is dying that he can wake - In many of these poems objects matter. They are the things we think with, we remember with them, they confirm or reduce us. Sometimes they help to identify who...
