Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Third Report of the Secretary of the Class of 1874 of Harvard College: July, 1874 June, 1880 The accompanying record covers the time since graduation, as such a course is necessary in most cases in order to present an intelligent statement of the preparatory work for a profession or other occupation. Most of the Class are now settled, and such a repetition will be unnecessary in the future; but the reports already published must be preserved in order to make the future reports valuable. There are a few copies left of the first triennial report, which will be furnished upon application. The expense of these reports is very large, and so little new or interesting can be offered every three years, that I would suggest the propriety of discontinuing the triennial system. My own idea is, that if a report is published in 1884, the decennial of our graduation, and thereafter every five years, even the most enthusiastic of our number will be satisfied. Unless instructed to the contrary, this course will be adopted. The income from the Class Fund is now more than sufficient to meet the ordinary expenses of the Class. There are weighty objections to the use of this margin for dinners, even if the amount were sufficient to pay for an annual dinner. The matter will be submitted to the Class on Commencement Day, for such action as they may deem desirable. For more detailed information as to the condition of the Class and College Funds, I refer you to the statements in the following pages. During the last three years, two classmates have died, Aston and Knowles, and in this report will be found brief...
