What is Military Rank? A. Military rank is that character or quality bestowed on military persons which marks their station, and confers eligibility to exercise command or authority in the military service within the limits prescribed by law. It is divided into degrees or grades, which mark the relative positions and powers of the different classes of persons possessing it. (7) Q. What determines the order of precedence of officers in the military service? A. In each grade or sub-grade, the date of commission, appointment or warrant determines the order of precedence. (9) Q. Command exercised is by virtue of what? A. By virtue of office and the special assignment of officers holding military rank, who are eligible by law to exercise command. (13) Q. May an officer place himself on duty by virtue of his commission alone? A. No officer may place himself on duty without orders from competent authority except when it may be necessary to exercise the functions of his office to quell quarrels, frays and disorders among troops (old 24th Article of War); or, when upon marches, guards, or in quarters, different corps of the army happen to join or do duty together, when the highest ranking officer of the line of the army present assumes command of the whole (old 122d Article of War). (13) Q. What are the appropriate commands for officers of the several grades? A. 1. For a captain, a company. 2. For a major, a battalion. 3. For a colonel, a regiment. 4. For a brigadier-general, a brigade. 5. For a major-general, a division. (14) Q. What is the status of an...
