AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 288 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Forced to leave a prosperous and comfortable life in Mexico behind them for fear of retribution from Pancho Villas bandits prior to The Revolution, the Flores family leaves their beloved land and flee to Texas. After a fatal freak accident, the youngest member of the Flores family is born - three months premature. Told the baby would not survive, the family travels back to Mexico to bury two of its members, but survive he does. This is the story of a family's slow spiral into the depths of poverty, and the struggle of one child to change it. Armed with the driving motivation to succeed, some Guardian Angels, and a never-ending faith, this young child manages to survive the violent streets of Mexico by using his street smarts and the Golden Rules of Life. Hungry for a better life, he uses his wits, determination, and uncanny understanding of the worst and best in people to become a self-made man. From Mexico to the United States, this young child turned man shows the world that anything is possible, as long as you keep reaching for your dreams. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
