

Miami: City of the Future, Revised Edition (Paperback)

By T.D. Allman

University Press of Florida, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book. An exuberant portrait of the city. --New York Times Book Review Superbly reported and deftly written. --Business Week An extraordinary look at an extraordinary city. --Edward James Olmos, actor and director, Miami Vice As entertaining and as distracting as the city itself. --Washington Times After reading this book, I still don t understand what makes Miami what it is, but that s why I love this book and that crazy town. --Jimmy Buffett, singer and songwriter A delightfully unbuttoned paean to Babel on Biscayne Bay. . . . As complex, compelling, and colorful as the city it celebrates. --Kirkus Not only does T. D. Allman s portrait of Miami remain, a quarter century later, as smart and funny and keenly observed as it was upon its first publication day, it is vibrantly current and astonishingly prescient. Miami resonates far beyond its immediate subject and illuminates deep truths about America s--and, indeed, the world s--twenty-first-century cultural and political turmoil. Not incidentally, Allman s brilliant prose style endures as well. The book is a joy to read. --Robert Olen Butler, author of A Good...
