Random House USA Inc, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Tommie Simms was supposed to be the community hope, the young man from the neighborhood who made good. He attended a state university, married a respectable woman, and landed a position at a white-collar insurance firm. Watching over Chicago from the thirty-third floor of his company's downtown high rise, Tommie ignores the gnawing sense that he doesn't belong on this path--and that in a blink of an eye, he could stray from its given destination. And then he does . . . Soon Tommie is laid off, and he begins to see himself as just another faceless entity on the city's fringes. After each fruitless job interview, Tommie's wife withdraws from him further, and in the mirror he faces the reflection of failure his family never intended for him. Stymied by rejection and mounting debt, Tommie is seduced into peddling dope as his best opportunity to define himself and to provide for those he loves. But a corporate job is no preparation for hustling, and when Tommie finds himself on the wrong side of a...
