THE MASS IN SCRIPTURE LECTIO DIVINA BIBLE STUDIES

Our Sunday Visitor. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 192 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Despite the frequency in which we attend Mass or the fervor in which we participate, how deeply do we truly understand this Eucharistic celebration? In an exceptional combination of one of the most ancient forms of Scripture study with the history, theology, and Scriptural perspective of the Eucharist, Stephen Binz leads us on an incredible journey of enlightenment. Lectio divina, the ancient practice of Scripture immersion, is at the heart of this process. Specifically, every chapter leads you forward through a sequence of: ---Listening Reading Scripture with expectancy, trusting that God will speak His Word to us through it---Understanding Seeking to comprehend the meaning of the text, encountering God there and being changed by that encounter---Reflecting Linking the truth of the Scriptures to the experience of faith in the world in which we live---Praying A dialogue with God: we listen to God then we respond in prayer---Acting After prayerfully listening to God through a passage of Scripture, we should be inspired to make a difference in the way we live This book, the first in the Lectio Divina Bible Study series, is a timely gift to the People of God who worship in English. The Lectio Divina framework, as Stephen Binz applies it, is a marvelously apt guide for preparing individuals and worshiping communities for the new translation of the Roman Missal and for a more profound participation in the liturgy. The biblical and liturgical scholarship is solid yet accessible. Binz's approach is creative, non-polemical, and traditional in the best sense of the word. ---Judith M. Kubicki, C. S. S. F., liturgical theologian, Associate Professor of Theology, Fordham University Stephen Binz's timely book provides an integrated approach into the experience of worship, employing the Scriptures as a...
