Excerpt: .his hand against her hueless lips, She prayed him for the love of her, his wife, For love of all his children, he would go, So that he yielded. Loth was he to part; The coward dread for self that shamed him first Had left his heart, and now for her he feared, Her and her maidens; still she pressed him sore, Until he thought, They seek my life, not hers; Then with one agonising last embrace Stepped to the vault, and dropped, and Catherine cried, They come! quick, quick! the plank! I bar the door. A moment listening by the door she stood, Then stooped and groped around, and rose again With a sick misery in her blue eyes, And haggard lines upon her working face, Muttering, The bar is gone, and all is lost! Bewildered, terrified, she only thought Of safety for...
