P, Vol. 1: Being an Answer to His Second Letter on the British and Foreign Bible Society, And, at the Same Time, an Answer to Whatever Is Argumentative in Other Pamphlets, Which Have Been Lately Written to the Same Purpose The propositions, which you undertake to combat, you have stated in the following words, in the second page of your Letter. First, that the Bible Society produces a disregard of the Liturgy. Secondly, that its foreign operations have been mis stated and exaggerated. And, Thirdly, that its real objects are of a political, and not a religious nature. These three propositions being quite distinct, it is of no consequence in what order they are examined. And as the two last require at present very little examination in comparison with the first, and are really unconnected with the decision of the main question, which was agitated in my Inquiry, it will be more convenient to dispose of these two propositions, before we enter on the first, which will then become the principal subject of examination.
