When Jack Richards, a sports journalist with The Telegraph discovered 15 year old Josh Cody in a street brawl in 2006, he could not have foreseen the life changing, and often dangerous adventures that lay ahead. As a sceptic of modern youth he was no pushover when it came to recognising Josh s potential as a boxer, but such were his talents that it required little or no imagination to be convinced of his potential. In 2004 Josh s mother was kidnapped on the same day that his father, a sergeant in the SAS, had been reported missing, believed killed in Baghdad. After going to the USA Josh is involved in the rescue of a young African-American girl and, following this, becomes world famous after appearing on the David Letterman TV chat show. This is the story of Josh s search for the truth about his parents.
