REFRAMING INFORMATION ARCHITECTURE (HUMAN-COMPUTER INTERACTION SERIES)

Springer. Paperback. Condition: New. 156 pages. Information architecture has changed dramatically since the mid-1990s and earlier conceptions of the world and the internet being different and separate have given way to a much more complex scenario in the present day. In the post-digital world that we now inhabit the digital and the physical blend easily and our activities and usage of information takes place through multiple contexts and via multiple devices and unstable, emergent choreographies. Information architecture now is steadily...
