Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bill and Grace Bennett packed their belongings, and their secrets, and headed north to Montana from Texas to live life by their own rules. They settled in Sutter s Crossing and built a dream home around Bill s successful ranch. They had three children and fit in nicely among the community that fulfilled their dreams, but the dreams they built on deep-rooted secrets didn t last. The Bennett s lives begin to unravel as their teenage children start to uncover the truth about who they really are. As adults, Olivia, Jake and Ashley dig deeper into their parents past and discover unimaginable things. The siblings try to understand the tenuous family ties that bind them and each head down a destructive path while coping with the reality of what they learn. Will they be able to deal with the shocking revelations that are uncovered, or will the deceptions rip apart the seams that held their family illusion together? Everyone has something to hide, but what is the cost of living a lie?.
