Excerpt: . . . that nothing in the said Act contained shall prevent the said Governor and Company from continuing to carry on in Ruperts Land, or elsewhere, trade and commerce. That surrender--it is to be remembered--was solely, substantially, of the territorial rights or claims of the Company; for as to the liberty and franchise of trade and commerce to the Company, it was left unimpaired, to be used in common with the world; and the principle of monopoly was properly, legally, constitutionally, and in paramount political behest, ignored and tacitly denied. According to constitutional polity, it had become effete. In 1871, under circumstances which need not here be stated, the company paid in cash and at once 107, 055 sterling--say 520, 287--to the Caief Factors and Chief Traders then being, and holding their position, precisely and wholly, on the terms and conditions of the original Indenture and...
