

Aegean Sun: The Diaries (Paperback)

By Stephanie Wood

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Take a sneak peak at the private diaries of Mark, the holiday representative at the Aegean Sun Hotel, and see why describing his guests as Disney characters, an 80s pop duo and various Hollywood actors makes his summer season a bit more interesting. He experiences several unexpected events whilst caring for his guests which lead to a few sticky situations, including a predicament at the hospital, a confrontation in a hotel room, a dilemma on the bar crawl and a sleepless night on a flight delay. His reports for Head Office must be professional, so he uses his diary to express his real feelings about what has happened and to convey his true personal opinions, however unflattering that may be to the people concerned. Each short story can be read separately, but they are linked by Mark's descriptions of his working life and his attempts to maintain a happy and successful private life as he progresses through the summer. Whatever the impediment or obstacle, the entertainment goes on.
