While She was bracing herself for the ordeal at the hands of the immigration Officials an ordeal concerning which her husband had fore warned her and carefully prepared her in his letters a young man, simply uniformed, came up to where She and her three children sat huddled together beside their bundles. He looked at the card which was pinned to her Shawl and made a Sign for her to follow him. In side a railing another man examined her tickets and addresses and, barely moving his lips, emitted an in distinct sound. Whereupon the first man led them through an iron gate to a bench in the waiting-room. Masha Witkowski and her three children had been admitted to America, and they were not aware of it. The family had hardly finished its belated noon meal - purchased from one of the stands in the waiting room - when a man again came up....
