MOSTLY TRUE GHOSTLY STORIES

Natasha J. Rosewood. Paperback. Condition: New. 358 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Looking for ghost stories Mostly True Ghostly Stories is a collection of ten spooky, fictionalized tales inspired by the real-life experiences of ex-flight attendant, psychic and author, Natasha J. Rosewood. Whether set in a haunted youth hostel in France, a ghost town in Death Valley, California, at 35,000 feet over the Alps or the alien-invaded English countryside, every ghost story will have you teetering on the edge of the abyss between reality and illusion. Mostly True GHOSTLY Stories Previews 1. BREATHE What do y-y-you think that is David was pointing into the belly of the quarry. A vague, dark, metallic shape was barely visible in the growing dark. A dead robot I offered, laughing. I dont know. An old car I w-w-want to ssss-see. David grinned at me mischievously. Lets go in. It was 1968. Sarah, an 18-year-old relative newcomer to this northern English town, had fallen in love with the tall, gentle David. Even his stammer was endearing. In the spring dusk, the young couple went through the hilly Pennines for what should have been an innocent country drive. But by the end of this surreal evening, Sarah needed to know for her very survival what had really happened in the quarry 2. WEEPING WILLOW COTTAGE Then the banging suddenly stopped. There was a long silence followed by a confusion of sounds. Thumps, raised voices. Tools dropping. Swearing. Eve looked up from her magazine and frowned at me. My stomach lurched. I knew something was terribly wrong. Samantha is a young woman who has given up on love and decides to buy a cottage in the Buckinghamshire countryside. Despite believing that she has chosen her quaint new home, it soon becomes apparent that the haunted house has...
