PARALLEL LIVES (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What if Haven t we all wondered what life would be like if we made different choices - decisions so significant that they could change the very course of our lives. What if we opened the door to that alternative career, travelled beyond the boundaries of our known homeland or dared to fulfill that forsaken love? What if, it was possible to communicate with those different versions of ourselves; those who existed in these parallel worlds? Much like vacillating strings played as a chord on a violin, what if we combined our unique gifts? Would the result be a powerful force for good? On the other hand, would it open the door for chaos? Drunk and desperate, Richard grapples with the kind of black hopelessness that can only find solace in an eternal silence. Seeing an image in the mirror, he staggers closer, Wait a minute. he blinks in disbelief, am I hallucinating? Hang on. I know you. don t I? He squints and widens his eyes several times proving to himself that this man, this vision , is indeed himself Only this man looks healthier, his brow less furrowed, his face not ravaged from a life of disappointment. He is a Professor of History. It seems Richard s medical path began around the same time the visitor s career began. You see, the professor says quite plainly, when a choice is made - another choice is left behind. That road not travelled is exactly where our lives split. You went your way and I mine. The Prof explains how his own life, parallel to Richard s but yet his own, was made possible because of this split. He invites the others...
